

Were You Ever Incarcerated? Then You Need to Know Three Numbers

Because all men are required to register with Selective Service, including those who were formerly incarcerated.

18 The age when you are required to register with Selective Service. You must register if you are between the ages of 18 and 26.

26 Your 26th birthday. Once you turn 26, you are permanently barred from ever registering.

30 You are required to register within 30 days of release, up to your 26th birthday. It's the law.

Don't risk permanent ineligibility for jobs, college loans, and job training programs. Remember to register at sss.gov, or pick up a registration form at any post office.
