Tournament Donates Over 1,200 Pounds of Fish

For the past nine years, Rob Grinton, SSS Region I participates in the PFC Geoffrey Morris Memorial Governor's Cup Fishing Tournament. The annual two day tournament is held in honor of PFC Morris who was deployed to Iraq and killed in action on April 4, 2004. It has become one of the largest salmon/trout fishing tournaments in the Midwest with both a Professional and an Amateur category. It is held on Lake Michigan among the four surrounding states. Proceeds from this tournament are donated to the Illinois Military Family Relief Fund. The Fund's purpose is to assist the families of Illinois National Guard members and reservists who face economic hardship when the military serviceman or servicewoman is called to active duty.

The boat Captains take out local veterans and war heroes to fish. This year they donated over 1200 lbs. of fish to local homeless shelters and to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center to serve to military members. The "Hunt, Fish, Feed" organization cooked the fish. Rob Grinton takes an active role in the planning and operation of the tournament and coordinates with the local food pantries in Northern Illinois to ensure fish is distributed to churches, soup kitchens and smaller pantries. As a U.S Marine veteran who served in Desert Storm, Rob Grinton enjoys giving back to the troops and supporting his community.

Region II RFO Revisits Normandy Spends Time with Sergeant Jack Schlegel 82nd Airborne Division

I had the honor and privilege to be in Normandy, France on 6 June 2014 for the 70th Anniversary of D-Day. This was the second consecutive trip for me and the fifteenth for my father, Colonel Earl Tingle, Jr. (USA Retired). As with the previous visit, I was truly amazed by the generosity of the French people and their sincere appreciation for the sacrifices of the brave men who fought to liberate their country 70 years ago. The memorials and celebrations this year were attended by numerous dignitaries, including the President of the United States, the Queen of England, the President of Russia, and, of course, the President of France.

To highlight just a couple of the events from this year's visit, I will first mention the incredible ceremonial paratrooper drop over La Fiere and the town of Chef-du-Pont, France. U.S. Air Force C-130 Hercules aircraft, along with allied nation aircraft, dropped more than 700 paratroopers from the United States, France, Germany, England, and the Netherlands. One of the touching events this day was witnessing a World War II Normandy veteran who had made the jump into combat conditions 70 years ago pin jump wings on an 82nd Airborne paratrooper. The paratrooper in the picture had just made his master jump-wing certification on this day.

To continue with the tradition of documenting our travels, my father and I made sure to have our picture taken at Utah Beach while attending the ceremonies. The highlight from this day was the fireworks display that evening. All along the Normandy coastline, at 27 different locations, fireworks went off for over 30 minutes. The significance of this firework display was to remember the events early on the morning of 6 June 1944, where 7,000 ships approached the coast of Normandy. This was the largest flotilla the world had ever seen, and it has never been surpassed.

Col. Tingle (R) and MAJ Tingle

Finally, I would like to say how honored I was to meet D-Day veteran, Sergeant Jack Schlegel of the 82nd Airborne Division, 508th Paratrooper Infantry Regiment (PIR). I was able to be with Jack for two days during this trip to Normandy. During those two days, I could not get enough of the stories Jack had to tell from his days before D-Day, his days during the battle, and his thoughts of our great nation today. I was surprised and delighted when Jack asked me if we could take a "selfie" together.

Mr. Schlegel and MAJ Tingle

The five beaches selected for the landings have been known by their code names ever since: the two American Beaches, Utah and Omaha, the two British Beaches, Sword and Gold and the Canadian Beach, Juno.

Jack was part of a group of men who had landed near the town of Picauville, France in the heart of the German 91st Division. It is also with a heavy heart I must mention that Sergeant Jack Schlegel passed away on 11 June 2014, just days after returning home from this trip.

While in Normandy, at a dinner party in his honor, Jack had said that if he were to die tomorrow he will go happy knowing that he had been able to be at this 70th Anniversary. He was truly honored to be with his brothers-in-arms, to remember those who had died, and to be with his French families. I feel very fortunate that I was able to meet Sergeant Jack Schlegel, even if only for two days.

You can read a part of Jack's story at the 508th PIR website:

Farewell to Matt Bombella

On July 15, 2014, the Operations Directorate bade farewell to Mr. Matt Bombella, Program Analyst in the Preparedness Division. A U.S. Army and Operation Iraqi Freedom Veteran, Matt became the "go-to" individual for many Directorate projects and also served as the Agency's Reasonable Accommodations Manager. What we'll miss the most is his volunteer spirit and willingness to help out anyone in the Agency who needed assistance. Matt is moving on to Sarasota, Florida, where he'll be taking on a new position with the City's Human Resources Office. We wish Matt, Meredith, and Paige only the very best in their new lives ahead.

Barbara Dunford, SSS Budget Officer, has accepted a position at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Barbara was with the Agency from June 2011 through May 2014. She contributed to a successful resumption of operations after the government shutdown; enabled a smooth FY 2013 year-end closeout; helped to navigate a complex mid-year sequestration; and ensured the tedious but necessary day-to-day work of managing the budget was completed. We wish her good luck in all her future endeavors!

Jun Li

SSS bids farewell to Jun Li, Accountant, who has moved on to the National Institute of Standards and Technology. Jun contributed to numerous successful monthly, quarterly, and year-end closeouts, provided assistance to two accounting officers with her compilation of key financial documents, imputed cost calculations, amortization of equipment and long-term projects, and accounting for the agency's fixed assets. Jun's hard work ensured the tedious but necessary day-to-day work of accounting for the agency's resources was done accurately and on time. We will miss Jun and wish her all the best!
